

September 2016

God of peace, we ask you remember your people in this world who strive to be peacemakers. Today, we pray for...

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
Daily Prayer for Peace Remember, O God, your people in this world who strive to be peacemakers. We pray that we may be set free from the chains of hatred, violence and war that besiege us in our neighborhoods, cities, nation and across the world. We ask for courage, faith, hope that we all work together as one people towards harmony, tolerance, unity, reconciliation and fulfill your promise of peace on earth.				1 A transformation of hearts of those inclined to do violence	2 Those who encourage dialogue and community building	3 Those living amongst injustice and violence
4 Those who promote the common good	5 Indigenous people who are constantly subjugated	6 The loss of life due to hatred and ignorance	7 Racial dialogue and understanding in our communities	8 Those who are exploited and oppressed	9 Civility discourse by candidates	10 Barriers to be erased so we may be transformed from strangers into friends
11 PATRIOT DAY The thousands of victims who perished on 9/11 and their families	12 The healing of our nation	13 The end of response to injustices with assault rifles	14 The end of indefinite detention and violations of human rights	15 Those who strive to build bridges not walls	16 Families who face turmoil and terror	17 The courage to speak up in the midst of such tragedy and pain
18 Collective hearts to be a unifying voice for peace and reconciliation	19 Women who constantly struggle to find peace and equality	20 The isolated elderly who seek companionship	21 INT'L DAY OF PEACE A unifying peaceful response to the violence in our world	22 Those discriminated because of their skin color	23 The rejection of Islamophobia, stereotyping and scapegoating	24 Those who choose reconciliation and nonviolence over vengeance
NONVIOLENCE WEEK OF ACTIONS
25 Families fleeing from war and violence	26 Those experiencing the great pain at the loss of human life	27 Those who respond to hatred and oppression with prayer and nonviolence	28 The end of repressive policies that propagate fear and hatred	29 The promotion of tolerance, unity and hope around the world	30 Peace and harmony for all children on earth	