

The greatest commandment, “Love your neighbor as yourself...

Love is the fulfilling of the law”.

As we begin this first week of the Season of Creation, let us consider the great commandment. Who is my neighbor? Our neighbors are the people who live downstream of our waste. Our neighbors are those who are impacted by climate change because of our choices of energy or investment income. Our neighbors are the generations to come who will live on a bleak and barren world because of our consumerist society. Our neighbors are also the many living creatures who make up the web of life on which we depend and which God has called us to safeguard.
